

Money as Debt II

Promises
Unleashed

MONEY AS DEBT II
(77 min, Paul Grignon, 2008)

...The sequel to Money as Debt, the animated exposé of our debt-money system. Bailouts, stimulus packages, debt piled upon debt, where will it all end? How did we get into a situation where there has never been more material wealth & productivity and yet everyone is in debt to bankers?

Now, all of a sudden, the bankers have no money, and we the taxpayers, have to rescue the bankers by going even further into debt!

Money as Debt II explores the baffling, fraudulent and destructive money system arithmetic that holds us hostage to a forever growing DEBT ...and shows us how we might evolve beyond this, into a new era.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 13, 2009, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "BEYOND ELECTIONS - REDEFINING DEMOCRACY IN THE AMERICAS" (114 min, Michael Fox & Silvia Leindecker, 2008)

BEYOND ELECTIONS is a journey, which takes us across the Americas, in an attempt to answer one of the most important questions of our time: What is Democracy?

"Beyond Elections proves that democracy can and should be more than casting a ballot every four years. This empowering documentary gives hopeful and concrete examples from around the Americas of people taking back the reins of power and governing their own communities. Beyond Elections is a road map for social change, drawing from communal councils in Venezuela and social movements in Bolivia to participatory budgeting in Brazil and worker cooperatives in Argentina. The film gracefully succeeds in demonstrating that these grassroots examples of people's power can be applied anywhere. Particularly as activists in the US face the challenges of an Obama administration and an economic crisis, this timely documentary shows that the revolution can start today right in your own living room or neighborhood." ~ Ben Dangl, editor, Upside Down World

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 20, 2009, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "NO LOGO - BRANDS, GLOBALIZATION & RESISTANCE" (40 min, Sut Jhally, 2003)

In the age of the brand, logos are everywhere. But why do some of the world's best-known brands find themselves on the wrong end of the spray paint can -- the targets of anti-corporate campaigns by activists and protesters?

Based on the best-selling book by Canadian journalist and activist Naomi Klein, reveals the reasons behind the backlash against the increasing economic and cultural reach of multinational companies. Analyzing how brands like Nike, The Gap, and Tommy Hilfiger became revered symbols worldwide, Klein argues that globalization is a process whereby corporations discovered that profits lay not in making products (outsourced to low-wage workers in developing countries), but in creating branded identities people adopt in their lifestyles.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 27, 2009, 7-9:30 PM ...SPECIAL SCREENING!

Film: "THE YES MEN FIX THE WORLD" (87 min, Andy Bichlbaum & Mike Bonanno, 2009)

NOTE: Meaningful Movies will be helping with the WTO 10th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION - This screening will be held at a location to be announced.

THE YES MEN FIX THE WORLD is a screwball true story about two gonzo political activists who, posing as top executives of giant corporations, lie their way into big business conferences and pull off the world's most outrageous pranks.

From New Orleans to India to New York City, armed with little more than cheap thrift-store suits, the Yes Men squeeze raucous comedy out of all the ways that corporate greed is destroying the planet. Bruno meets Michael Moore in this gut-busting wake-up call that proves a little imagination can go a long way towards vanquishing the Cult of Greed. Who knew fixing the world could be so much fun? "Comedic vigilante justice... Media savvy pie-to-the-face." -USA Today
